More than 250,000 freight and passenger cars on the Pennsylvania system have been repainted and renumbered. The task was begun nearly two years ago and has just been completed.

Statistics about service of rails with a view of determining what kind are best adapted to various uses in tracks on curves were the subject of a recent conference in Pittsburgh, with special reference to New York Central lines.

A demand that all railroad tickets be issued to "bearer" without compulsory signature of the purchaser, was made at a meeting of the legislative committee of the National Ticket Brokers' Association at Chicago. A recent decision of the United States Supreme court held the requirement of a signature to be legal. Chairman F. T. Lincourt of Detroit, laid the decision of the court before the committee and said: "We must have legislation enacted that will suppress this signature business. Tickets should be made legal fare, just like money, good for what they stipulate without restrictions."

A traveling school of instruction for the trainmen of the New York Central lines west of Buffalo has been started on its rounds. A private coach containing the air brake equipment of a train of 30 cars all capable of perfect operation, the same as in actual service, is in charge of T. F. Lyons, who will deliver lectures to two classes daily. His talks are to be interspersed with practical illustrations from the full sized model of the equipment, and the working of the brake will be made so plain that any novice can clearly understand. A course of instruction is also given in this way on the handling of heating system in use on passenger cars and those used for the shipment of fruit.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO B. & O. BRAKEMAN

A. A. Meisse, a well known B. and O. railroad fireman of this city, met with a very serious accident Thursday night about midnight. Meisse fired on one of the switch engines in the yards and had gone across the tracks to get something to eat when he fell into a hole that had been left uncovered and broke one of his legs between the knee and thigh. Bowers & McCament's ambulance was called and he was taken to the Sanitarium where his injuries were attended to by Dr. Barnes, and at this writing he is resting quite easy. At the time of his accident his wife was visiting in Columbus.

HUNGRY AS A BEAR AND CAN'T EAT

When Mealtime Comes, You Suffer From a Yes-Not Kind of Hunger You're a Dyspeptic.

How to Cure All Stomach Troubles.

A good many people get mad when you tell them they've got dyspepsia, but way down deep in their stomachs they know they've got it.

"I'd love to eat it," but I can't," is one kind of dyspepsia.

"I hate to think of it," is another kind. There are thousands of people today who hate their meals, and love them at the same time. They haven't that fine empty-hungry eat-everything-in-sight kind of feeling which goes with every good strong healthy stomach. That's because they have dyspepsia. And then there are others whose mouths don't water at meal time or at any other time. They sit at the table and go through the motions, only because it's time to eat. These people, too, are dyspeptics.

Every possible kind of stomach trouble can be cured by taking something which will just take right hold of all the food in your stomach and digest it alone, without the help of the stomach, and let the stomach take a rest.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing. They are composed of the best digestive known to science, and are absolutely safe. One ingredient alone of one of these tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food! These tablets do exactly the work that a good strong healthy stomach does.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure all cases of dyspepsia, indigestion, burning or irritation, loss of appetite, bloat, brash, belching, aversion to food, fermentation and gas on the stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make you feel "good" before and after each meal, and make your stomach strong and healthy again. They will make you happy.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold at every drug store for 50c a box.

Charming and Popular.

When the president made several changes in his cabinet last March he called Ambassador Meyer to assume the portfolio of postmaster general. The Meyers, it was said by the social exquisites at Washington, would make most welcome additions to the society of the national capital. Their wide experience not only in Boston's Back Bay district, but in the circles where kings, queens and princelings move, would lend "distinction" to the cabinet circle, all of which has turned out to be true. The Meyer ladies are charming and popular. European court experience is by no means to be sneezed at in our democratic Washington, for the families of foreign diplomats may be inclined to prefer the near European to the all American brand of social etiquette.

As to the head of the Meyer household, these stories of his wealth and his family's social training were not conducive to the solidification of his reputation with the masses. In fact, there appeared to be a set purpose on the part of some Washington correspondents to deny to Mr. Meyer the place of honor at the head of his department and to make Frank Hitchcock, the first assistant, postmaster general by brevet. It was said that Hitchcock did the work and Meyer drew the honors.

Postmaster General Meyer now seems to have gained his bearings in the postoffice department and to have become the pilot of the ship. The local postoffice is the average citizen's most intimate bond of acquaintance with the national government. To the most of us a proposed change, for better or for worse, in the postoffice department is a matter of personal interest. Just how the innovations proposed by Mr. Meyer of Beacon Hill will suit the denizen of Hillside Corners, should they be approved by congress, remains to be determined.

G. B. S.'s Market Value.

George Bernard Shaw, writing in the London New Age, says: "Milton took £5 for 'Paradise Lost' because he could not get any more. I should ask £5,000 for the same quantity of pen and ink work because I need not take any less."

RHEUMATISM CANNOT BE CURED UNLESS URIC-O IS USED.

Sudden Deaths, Heart Failure and Paralysis are Caused by Poisonous Uric and Rheumatic Acids.

The Rheumatic person is skeptical regarding the claims of almost any remedy advertised as a cure for Rheumatism. One can scarcely blame him for being so. All the plaster and liniment combined never actually cured a case of Rheumatism. They may relieve it in one quarter, but it is sure to break out somewhere else. The only true way to cure Rheumatism is to drive it from the system, for as long as the Uric and Rheumatic Acid remains in the blood, one is never entirely free from the trouble. This is where the value of Uric-O as a permanent cure for Rheumatism comes in. It seeks out the Rheumatic poison in the blood, muscles and kidneys, renders it inert and harmless and drives it out of the system. That is why Uric-O is such an admirable and effective cure for Rheumatism.

The chief reason that Uric-O is such a wonderful cure for Rheumatism is, that it is designed and prepared to cure Rheumatism and Rheumatism only. It is composed of perfect antidotes for the Rheumatic acid in the system. That is the secret of its wonderful success. Rheumatism simply cannot exist in a person's system if Uric-O is used.

Uric-O is sold by druggists at 75c and $1.00 a bottle, but if you still feel skeptical about its efficacy you can test it free of charge by cutting out this advertisement and sending the same together with your name and address, also the name of your druggist, to The Smith Drug Co., 362 Smith Bldg., Syracuse, N.Y., and they will send you a sample bottle free. To persons who write and say they have never used Uric-O, and want to test it thoroughly, and will agree to take it systematically according to directions, they frequently give a 75c bottle free.

Uric-O is sold and recommended in Newark by Frank D. Hall, North Side Square.

ECZEMA CONQUERED

By a Grand, Old Remedy.

READ THIS EXPERIENCE.

The following story is unsolicited, and its truthfulness is evident. It is only one of many tales of great suffering from Eczema and a radical cure after all hope was lost.

Palmer's "SUCCESS" Treatment is well known for its effects cures where the seemed impossible. It is not a magic but scientific.

ECZEMA HAD TO YIELD.

A grateful husband sends the pleasing record of his wife's complete cure from Eczema after all hope had gone.

"At my wife's solicitation and from a feeling of personal gratitude, I wish to tell you what Palmer's 'SKIN-SUCCESS' Remedies have done for her. For two years past she had suffered tortures from Eczema. I consulted specialists all over the country in an effort to cure her, but it was money thrown away. It would take a good sized trunk to hold all the lotions and ointments that we had purchased. My wife had become so despondent at the repeated failure that life seemed hardly worth living. Some three months ago we went into a store in Akron, Ohio, where we had been in the habit of trading, and the proprietor suggested your remedies. I had reached that stage where we had lost faith in everything, but the druggist recommended them so highly, I said, 'Well, wrap up a cake of the soap, a box of the ointment and a bottle of the remedy.' When my wife applied the ointment, she told me that she felt as if she could hardly endure it, but at my urgent request she continued the treatment. Her hands were a mass of sores, and there also a bad case of Eczema on her hands or feet. We are now again happy, but knowing your remedies, I thought you would like to know how we were cured."

"SUCCESS" Treatment cures all Skin and Blood diseases, including Eczema, Scabies, Psoriasis, Erysipelas, Impetigo, Blackheads, Pimples, Itch, and Oak Itch, and all other Skin and Blood Diseases.

NEW YEAR IN JAPAN.

Characteristic Festivities of the Mi kado's Capital.
"Imagine oneself in Tokyo during the New Year festivities," writes Clar ence Marshall Phillips in the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "The first thing to attract one's attention would be the porch decorations. Each one is ar ranged in great ropes twisted and knot ted into amazing beauty. Pine branch es, either arched over the doors or windows, are interspersed with or anges and bordered with festoons of flowers, while to symbolize Old Age on account of his crooked back a lob ster occupies a conspicuous position (referring, of course, to the old year).
In fact, the most unique of displays on the Ginza are those of the lobsters, which are so skillfully arranged that the onlooker can readily guess the meaning or 'story' the arrangement was intended to convey.

"Rows of sales booths, tent shows and those features generally seen at an oriental street fair occupy two and a half miles of the street's length.
Anything from a cheap fan to a costly image of Buddha can be bought at whatever price the moment demands.
Dances allegorical of every side of life are in profusion, while the fakir is as common as in any European fair.

"The real beauty of the scene is fur nished by the flower booths which dot the Ginza as far as one can see. These displays are wrought into such phe nomenal beauty that one would infer the designers to be none other than the tasteful Japanese. Odd it is how prevalent this power is among this people. Even the proprietors of the most humble booths possess the fac ulty. The whole fair cannot be taken in in a few hours, but at 12 we re tire to our hotel to pass away the witching hour at which time the old year passes into the new. The frivol ities are now toned down, and in the spell of the hush we foreigners can not help but recall the time gone when we listened while the guns boom ed 'farewell' and the bells rang out the old, rang in the new. The festivi ties continue the remainder of the night and the next day and until the 3d of January. The decorations are taken down on the 4th or 6th, ac cording to local custom. From this time on to the 16th of January the business man enjoys his vacation, which is a quite essential conclusion to the New Year's gayety. After this, though, he again resumes his work, and the New Year's frolic is jotted down on memory as a thing of the past."

A Custom Worth Copying.
A New Year's ceremony much more exact than our custom of "swearing off" is indulged in in China. On the last day of the old year the law com pels every one to settle accounts with his creditors so as to begin the new year with a clean account. If any one cannot pay the debt is canceled, but there is a great deal of feeling shown. It is considered so disgraceful to leave a debt unpaid that the un lucky debtor who cannot discharge his pecuniary obligations at that time is liable to be treated with insult and in jury. Among the coarser classes they often break out and smash the furni ture of a debtor and annoy his family in every possible way, and then he cannot get any protection from the magistrates, no matter how seriously he is injured, as the fact of his not paying up cuts him off from all sym pathy.—Chicago Tribune.

Mrs. S.—Don't you dare to do it—

AMUSEMENTS

THE REAL WIDOW BROWN.
We all have certain weaknesses for widows, especially when they are as captivating as "The Real Widow Brown," which visits the Auditorium Saturday afternoon and night, Dec.
28, championed by A. Q. Scammon.
This amusing play is the latest bid for popular attraction from the Am erican public, and there is no doubt that its great Berlin and London suc cess will be duplicated here. It is a farce-comedy of the most amusing type, replete with bright songs and clever dance, interpreted by some of the best artists in the theatrical world. It possesses a decidedly amusing plot, full of absurd compli cations and yet withal, clean and pure. If you see "The Real Widow Brown" you are bound to laugh. If you don't laugh you've made a mis take and as a panacea for the blues you should have sought a druggist's prescription and not an orchestra

WAY DOWN EAST.
Wm. A. Brady's production of "Way Down East" heralded as the "perennial wonder," is the attraction booked at the Auditorium for an en gagement of one night, Monday, De cember 30 next, and judging from the advance inquiries regarding the sale of seats, the engagement prom ises to be exceptionally big.

The play has prompted unstinted and enthusiastic praise from the clergy, school teachers, women, and in fact, people in every walk of life, in cluding thousands who are seldom seen inside the walls of a theater.

The scene of action is a New Hamp shire farm, the play being from the pen of Lottie Blair Parker and elab orated by Hoss. R. Grismer. It is made up of a series of happenings designed to please all classes. It has its bright, wholesome comedy side as well as its tragic moments. The story is simply told in plain plain fashion, but is so interesting as to hold one's attention from the rise to the final fall of the curtain. It deals with a young and trusting lass who has been betrayed by a mock marriage by a dip man with more money than mor als, and the trials and tribulations of the hapless Magdalen are followed with undivided attention.

Miss Phoebe Davies still portrays the character of Anna Moore, and is ably supported by Mac M. Barnes as Squire Bartlett, Ella Hucbe Wood as the mischief making gossip monger, Elric B. Collins as David Bartlett, Caroline Von Bulow as Kate Brew ster, Frank Bartlett, Charles Burke as the fussy old town constable, Jas.
T. Galloway as Seth Holcombe, with his long life bitters, John E. Brennan as Hi Holler the chore boy, with his "Pickings from Puck," Earl R. Wil liams as the city man, Lennox San derson and the famous village choir composed of Fred Freeman, tenor, Es telle Ward soprano, Oliver Johnson, basso, and Jennie Millard contralto.

Manager Brady will present "Way Down East" with all the beautiful scenery, mechanical effects and acces sories seen here in seasons past.

THE MINISTER'S SON.
Critics often refuse to admit that that which is not laborious, where no violence of direction is shown they see no art. To follow too closely to nature is considered rude by some—it indicates lack of culture to them, but the great majority of theater go ers are quick to recognize and appre ciate a play that deals with human nature. Such a play is "The Min ister's Son." The author has not made one of his characters speak in a dressed epigram as do the stage folks —Pinero or Jones, but has given them instead the quaint mannerisms of speech and the "localism" of their own simple village atmosphere, and the play is well seasoned with the humor with there current. Seldom has a piece been accorded such unstinted praise by both press and public. The management promises an entirely new scenic investiture of the most elaborate character for this season's production and a cast of unusual ex cellence engaged for their special fitness of the different roles. At the Auditorium New Year's day, January 1st.

INDIANS VS. STAGE HANDS.
Because the stage hands would not permit the band of Indians traveling with "The Flaming Arrow" company to smoke on the stage or a Connel ville, Pa., theater, a general fight ensued, in which the stage hands were badly beaten and routed, at which the red men got the worst of the mix-up. This same company

New Year's in Rural Russia.
In the country villages of Russia New Year's, celebrated on Jan. 13, is pre-eminently a children's day when the little folks are allowed the great est liberties. Early in the morning the boys arm themselves with peas and wheat. Their enemies they sub friends a shower of wheat. After go formance they accompany a gayly caparisoned horse or ass to the home of the nobleman who is their landlord and master. Both the beast and the of the nobleman's house, and the latter
